

Choose Dedication Over Discouragement!

“Why do we try to make attempts to change, when we are not willing to DO what it takes to make a change?”

-Bill Wilson

12. Look within yourself for a moment. Does this type of message simply get you hyped up, or are you really going to get on and get going—seeking and serving God? How can you take some real life steps today and in the coming weeks to DO what it takes to make a change? (Remember your opening prayer.)

Once you've begun, don't let well-intentioned people, circumstances, finances, or the many other sources of discouragement deter you from going on. Use wisdom and remember: what God started in you He will finish!

And I am convinced and sure of this very thing, that He Who began a good work in you will continue until the day of Jesus Christ [right up to the time of His return], developing [that good work] and perfecting and bringing it to full completion in you.

-Philippians 1:6, AMP

13. What or who are some of the sources of opposition you can foresee? How are you now prepared to deal with them, through the Holy Spirit, so you can complete the work God has called you to?

VIDEO SESSION

(Based on Christianity in the Crosshairs, chapter 1)

Dedication: Committing your whole self to a course of action.

Principles From the Land of Ono: A Faith That Fortifies, Part 2

“Let us not be content to wait and see what will happen, but give us the determination to make the right things happen.”

—Prayer by Senate Chaplain Rev.
Peter Marshall, 1949

Man on the Street

Can One Person Make a Difference?

This is a question people seem to have many different ideas about. Some say without hesitation, “No way; one person can’t possibly change the world.” Others say it takes an army to make any real difference. Some think Christ made a difference, and others think they themselves have.

1. Is it a lie, or could it be true? Can one person REALLY make a difference?
